NEW YORK, May 8, 185. Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

> Christopher Adams, complainant, James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants Samuel Byington, and

Richard Wallach, THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government, agreeing to supply the government with five mil-lion of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January. A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of iour thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, as signed the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Constock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent.
on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wal-lach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defeadants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defend ants, or their representatives, and the defend ants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the process of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint agrinst the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isanc N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right unless the said defendants. court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon-day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause it any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be Provided the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January. Given at rules, the first Monday of January, Diary of Turkish and Greek Writers, by the Sight Hon. the Earl of Carlisle, edited by C. C. Felton, Greek Professor in Harvard University. The noble Earl is well and favorably known in this country, having travelled here while he bore the title of Lord Morpeth, and his work will be read with great interest by all who have devoted any attention to the mighty events which are now taking place in the Eastern World. The period embraced in his journal is one of deep significance, being at the very commencement of hostilities, and the persons introduced have since played eminent parts in this tetrible historical tragedy. Professor Felton has added full and copious notes to the American edition, and the work is beautifully illustrated. It will hereafter be regarded as a valuable, historical record of this in garded as a valuable, eresting period.

Paper Moistener.—A new and very neat useful invention for moistening post office stamps, envelopes, sheets in a copying book, counting bank bills, &c. This does away with the disagree able method of moistening stamps, &c., with the ongue. It is a patent article, vary simple and cheap, and will be universally adopted as soon as t is seen .- Boston Transcript, Sept. 1854.

PAPER MOISTENER .- A new invention for more ening postage stamps, envelopes, sheets in a copying book, counting bank bills, &c. The common way of moistening stamps with the tongue is very disagreeable and inconvenient; also the usual way of wetting sheets in a copying book, by using a brush which has to be dipped in water, is inconvenient and very difficult te give paper an even moisture, which is very desirable for copying letters. This article obviates these difficulties, besides being useful for various other purposes. It is also perfectly simple and cheap, and must come into general use.—[Boston Post, Sept., 1854.

PAPER MOISTENER -A newly invented and very useful little contrivance for moistening postage stamps and envelopes, and for wetting sheets in a copying book, &c. It costs but little, and will save the tongue a good deal of unpleasant work [Boston Traveller, Sept., 1854]
